Summary: ODSTS plus Elites equal not ordinary

1. Chapter 1

Welcoming

(I will make some references to _Halo: the fall of Reach)_

On a UNSC destroyer out in deep space for a training exercise with the elites. The arbiter is leading the Elites, and a Sergeant named Brandon is leading the ODSTS.

"All right this is a simulation, stun ammo of the ODSTS and Stun plasma for the Elites, Arbiter are you men ready?" lord hood asked.

`"yes" the arbiter said.

"Brandon are your ODSTS ready" Lord Hood asked

"Yes Sir" Brando said.

"ALL RIGHT, you will be dropped at different points and then link up and proceed to the extraction point for evac. There will be other ODSTS, and Elites trying to stop you have to stun them not kill stun" lord hood said.

"All right everybody in the pods" Brandon said.

Everybody climbed into a drop pod.

"Ready drop!" Brandon said.

Half of the pods went to the east of a mountain, and the other half went to the west of the mountain. Everything went off with out a hitch, both groups landed perfect at there assigned positions but the squad to the west of the mountain will find someone that the UNSC thought they had lost.

Awakenings

Brandon's team of ODSTs, and elites have just dropped on a unknown planet on a training mission, Brandon has just gotten a distress beacon on his HUD and is going to investigate.

"What is it sarge?" a ODST asked.

"A distress beacon on this planet about 5 meters to the left." Brandon replied.

Brandon and his team approach the beacon and find out it is a downed UNSC ship as soon as Brandon enters the ship a familiar looking AI appears.

"Halt, who are you?" Cortana asked

"I am Sergeant Brandon of the UNSC; but who are you?" Brandon asked

"I am Cortana" Cortana said

"Wait the Cortana the AI that went down with the master chief?" an ODST asked.

"Wait so the chief is here in this ship?" Brandon asked.

"Yes he is; I am waking him up now." Cortana said.

A cryo Pod opened and out walked the Master Chief.

"This is Spartan 117 reporting for duty" master chief said.

All of the ODSTs started to cheer wildly.

"Order; I am going to radio Lord Hood." Brandon said

Brandon told Lord Hood the news and got both teams including the Master chief, and Cortana to the ship that they lunched from. When he got in the barracks the chief removed his helmet he had a scar that ran across his face, and a little stubble.

"Chief we have a problem" lord hood said over the intercom.
